

Acts and
sections re-
enacted.

act of eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven, as is repugnant to the provisions of the fourth section of this act.

Other
sections
repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the first, third, and eighth sections of the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter two hundred, entitled, an act supplementary to an act for the despatch of business in Baltimore county court, be, and the same are hereby repealed; and that the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh sections of the same act, except only the words 'or some one of the judges thereof, to whom that duty shall be assigned,' in the said fifth section, shall be and the same are hereby re-enacted and continued.

Others re-
enacted.

Trial to progress
notwith-
standing
term may end.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any jury shall be sworn in any cause, which is not ended and determined at the close of the term, the court may, notwithstanding the close of the term, proceed with the trial of the cause in the same manner as if the term had not expired, and if the proceedings in said cause shall continue beyond the commencement of the new term, such proceedings shall be considered as having been had during the term in which the jury shall be sworn, and the court shall have power to continue the said new term from day to day, until such cause shall be determined.

Sections
continued
in force.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the third and fifth sections of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the despatch of business in Baltimore county court, be, and the same are hereby re-enacted and continued, except, however, and it is hereby provided, that the treasurer of the western shore shall so set apart and apply the moneys that he shall receive by virtue of said fifth section, and by virtue of the eighth sections of the act to which this is a supplement, and of the first and second sections of the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter one hundred and seventy-three, or by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, that if in any quarter, or at the end of any year, a deficiency shall exist in respect of the yearly allowance of eight hundred dollars to each of the judges of Baltimore county court, the same and all like deficiencies that shall occur during the continuance of this act, shall be paid and made up out of any excess or excesses of receipts of any other year or years, or quarter years, to the end that said excesses, from time to time received during said continuance, shall be a fund for paying and making up the deficiencies aforesaid, that shall, during said continuance, from time to time occur; Provided however, that any surplus which, after satisfying the said deficiencies, shall be at the end of the term for which this act is to continue, shall ensure to the benefit of the state.

Exception.

Case of deficiency.

Proviso.

The proviso in this section is repealed by 1837, ch. 72, sec. 1.